GRIEVANCE REDRESSAL CELL

POLICY:

The grievance procedure functions as a vital mechanism to address issues between students and the college. It serves as a recourse for students who perceive unfair treatment in academic or administrative matters, including instances of discrimination. This structured process allows individuals to articulate their concerns while adhering to the colleges established rules and regulations. The Student's Grievance Cell conducts a thorough, confidential investigation, carefully analysing the nature and patterns of grievances. Information is disclosed exclusively to those with a legitimate role in resolving the matter, placing a strong emphasis on procedural fairness to uphold the right to be heard and treated impartially.

SCOPE

Students are encouraged to engage with the cell to articulate and address grievances pertaining to academic matters, examinations, financial concerns, health services, library usage, and other pertinent services.

OBJECTIVES

To establish a systematic mechanism enabling students to voice their grievances and facilitate their redressal, ensuring a seamless tenure at the college from admission to graduation.
